Great Lakes Fruit, Vegetable and Farm Market EXPO and the Michigan Greenhouse Growers Expo

12/4/2012 - 12/6/2012

DeVos Place Convention Center, Grand Rapids, Michigan

The Michigan Greenhouse Growers EXPO is held concurrently with the Great Lakes Fruit, Vegetable and Farm Market EXPO. The combined trade show will have more than 380 exhibitors covering four acres of exhibit space in one hall.

In addition to the trade show, concurrent educational sessions will take place, members can attend and learn about many topics including new products and better growing techniques. This year we will again have greenhouse related topics. There will also be pre and post show bus tours.

And don't miss Acres Online Live, with our very own Chris Beytes on Wednesday from 9:00 - 9:50 am. If you read our weekly enewsletter Acres Online, you'll get the same thing but live. Chris will present the news, trends, tips, happenings and gossip from the horticulture world—and maybe even some good stuff that he doesn't dare print!
