CONFERENCE AND EXPO 2012
The Northeast's premier horticultural trade show

Northeast Greenhouse Conference and Expo

11/7/2012 - 11/8/2012

DCU Center, Worcester, Maine

Save the date for The Northeast Greenhouse Conference, (formerly the New England Greenhouse Conference) the northeast's premier horticultural event. Don't miss the opportunity to network with growers and other colleagues, hear the latest updates from nationally recognized speakers and visit the trade show.

Educational sessions will include 4 tracks throughout both days focused on pest and disease management, production techniques and tips, and business and marketing strategies. Pesticide recertification credits will be available for many of the educational sessions. In addition to the educational sessions, the trade show will be held both days with three dedicated hours in each day of the program.
