Florida Flower Trials - Changed to online format

4/20/2020 - 4/22/2020

Harry P. Leu Gardens, Orange County Extension and Walt Disney World, Orlando, Florida

As part of Florida Flower Trials's™ new online format, attendees will enjoy free access to view trial photos, evaluations and a trial booklet with information on the participating breeders and the new varieties being trialed. Updates on the trials will also be provided weekly beginning April 24. FNGLA will also offer a webinar, as part of this year's Trials, which will showcase how well each variety performs. That webinar will also be free to access and will be posted to FNGLA's website May 12.
