IPM Essen Summit

1/26/2021 - 1/26/2021

Virtual event

Messe Essen is giving the industry a stage for the originally planned 2021 fair, decision-makers and political representatives will exchange views on future topics in horticulture and current developments at the IPM ESSEN Summit at Messe Essen. In this way, they'll ensure that market data and future topics for the coming horticultural year are addressed and discussed. In a press conference, the top representatives of the industry report to the media - also as a livestream.
